

WE CALLED THE TURN

The Democrats Nominate the Herald's Forecast.

ISAAC M. TURNER FOR MAYOR

The Saloon Men Favor Judge Burlingame—No Open Fighting, But Plenty of Dissatisfaction.

DEMOCRATIC CITY TICKET. For Mayor, Isaac M. Turner. For Clerk, William Shinkman. For Treasurer, William F. Hake. For Comptroller, Leo A. Caro. For Board of Review, Frank H. Gill. For Marshal, William Bragg.

The democrats of the city met in a hall over a saloon on Lyon street last night to name a city ticket to place before the voters of Grand Rapids in the spring election. The place was chosen with special reference to the amount of liquor consumption which could be easily reached from the convention hall and many of the delegates availed themselves of an excellent opportunity to get full. The candidates were nominated without any open fighting on account of the sick manner in which combinations were worked at the caucuses, but great indignation was apparent among those who were asked to be delegates and were left in the lurch at the caucuses. Dissatisfied democrats filled the back of the hall and yelled and hissed at the men

Portsmouth were appointed tellers, and the scramble of the great unwatched caucus. Nominations were called for. Mr. Lauriere called Joseph Houseman to the chair and nominated I. M. Turner for mayor as follows. He said: "I stand here as a working democrat. Always working for the good of the party. I have a man in mind who has been tried and not found wanting. He has held many places of trust and has never disappointed the people." Billy Fitzpatrick again opened up and yelled something that could not be heard, and

JUDGE BURLINGAME.

Mr. Houseman yelled himself hoarse in trying to quell the excitement. "I speak of I. M. Turner." Mr. Lauriere got down exhausted. The wards began to support Mr. Turner. The ninth, seventh, first, eighth, fourth, sixth and third supported I. M. Turner. The twelfth, fifth, tenth and fourth supported E. B. Dikeman. At this point Joseph Houseman of the second nominated A. S. White, and said his ward was solid for Mr. White. The votes were counted. It was found that the honest (?) democrat delegates had managed to get sixty-two ballots in the hat. No one seemed surprised. It is too common in democrat conventions to cause surprise. Joseph Houseman moved that the chairman of each ward committee cast a vote for the delegates. This was carried and another ballot was taken. This was stuffed again and Billy Fitzpatrick the impressive, opened up and a movement was made to throw him out. His slate was broken in the fifth ward and he was mad. He wanted to get even, so he stood in the back of the hall and objected to every motion as irregular. The next ballot resulted as follows: I. M. Turner 33, E. B. Dikeman 10, A. S. White 10. Joseph Houseman moved to make it unanimous. It carried amid cheers. Charles D. Stebbins, M. M. Houseman and John McQueen were appointed to wait on Mr. Turner.

Judge Burlingame Nominated.

Charles M. Wilson in an eloquent speech nominated Judge Burlingame for judge of the superior court. The wards followed rapidly and the saloon men in the convention were first to get on their feet to nominate him. There was no opposition, the rules were suspended and he was chosen by acclamation. Ex Alderman Hayes nominated William Shinkman for clerk. C. M. Wilson nominated W. D. Pugh. John McLaughlin nominated W. J. Sprout. George Bennett nominated J. J. Belknap.

Assembly of the Unwashed.

The convention was called to order in a hall of saloons smoke that would have stifled one of the lungs from smoke by Chairman McConrick, and the call was read by Secretary Temple. Mr. McConrick made a splendid speech on what he hoped would be the result. He wished the delegates to put up a ticket composed of men who will run well. He called L. L. Lauriere to the chair as temporary chairman. He assumed the chair without a speech. Fred Temple was nominated for secretary, but he declined on the ground that he was not a delegate to the convention. Charles M. Wilson was nominated, but Billy Fitzpatrick of the fifth objected with the words "Temple was nominated. What's the matter with Temple?" Mr. Wilson withdrew, and Mr. Temple was elected temporary secretary. The following committee on permanent organization was named: James Fitzpatrick, C. M. Wilson, C. H. Phillips.

Had a Walkaway.

The ballot for clerk resulted as follows: Shinkman, 23; Pugh, 12; Belknap, 6; and W. J. Sprout, 2. William Shinkman was declared elected. A committee was appointed to call Judge Burlingame before the convention.

Had a Walkaway.

William Hake and John L. Curtis were nominated for treasurer, but William Hake had a walkaway and went out in the first heat with forty-seven ballots.

Had a Walkaway.

Leo A. Caro and James Vandenberg were nominated for comptroller. The first ballot resulted as follows: Caro, 24; Vandenberg, 28. Mr. Caro was therefore nominated.

Had a Walkaway.

The city committee was nominated as follows: First ward, L. Mustedyk. Second ward, Frank Anderson. Third ward, M. M. Houseman. Fourth ward, M. D. Ryan. Fifth ward, W. H. Fleming. Sixth ward, R. H. Andrews. Seventh ward, Gerald Fitz Gerald. Eighth ward, L. L. Lauriere. Ninth ward, W. A. Hayes. Tenth ward, Ed O'Donnell. Eleventh ward, Frank H. Gill. Twelfth ward, James Fitzpatrick.

Had a Walkaway.

The nomination of Frank Gill for board of review and equalization was made by acclamation. Mr. Hake was ordered in at this point and thanked the convention for placing him on the ticket. Messrs Gill and Caro did likewise. William Bragg was nominated for marshal by acclamation.

Had a Walkaway.

The committee appointed to find Judge Burlingame reported that he was enjoying that sweet little song, "Ta-ra-ra-boom-dee" in the Powers, and they could not reach him. The convention then broke up and retired to the saloons below to discuss the ticket that had been nominated.

THIRD WARD ALDERMAN

Alderman Dunton's Friends Think He Should Be Returned—Their Reasons.

One of the hottest contests which will occur at the caucuses tonight will be in the third ward. There are several candidates after the nomination for alderman, and strong efforts will be put forth by the friends of each. Alderman Dunton, who has served his ward one term at first and he did not desire a second term, but at the earnest solicitation of friends he finally consented, and it is probable that he will receive a re-nomination. Alderman Dunton has served his ward faithfully and well, and has proved a very valuable and efficient member of the common council. He is not as eloquent as some of the would-be statesmen, who make lengthy speeches nearly every Monday night, but as a committee man he has few if any superiors. Mr. Dunton is a man of mature years, is a heavy taxpayer in his ward and in other wards of the city, hence just the character of man with whom the people can safely trust their interests.

It has been truly said that it takes a member of congress one term to learn the ropes before he can be of much service to his district. The same thing is relatively true of a representative in the city council. It takes a good share of a man's first term to learn how to serve efficiently. He is able to give a full and true service during his second term than during his first one. Alderman Dunton's health is now much improved, and he would be able to serve his ward and the city well. His friends claim that the best citizens of the ward want him returned, but it will be necessary for them to turn out tonight or another will be nominated.

PAID MONDAY.

The Widow of Henry Burleson Receives $5,000 Accident Insurance.

It was only two months ago Monday (Jan. 20) that the late Henry Burleson took an accident insurance policy with Clark & Bowen of this city in the Pacific Life & Accident Insurance company of San Francisco, Cal. In less than three weeks, namely on Thursday, February 3, he was killed in a railroad accident near Manton. On February 27 the proofs of death were mailed to the home office and Saturday, March 18, a draft for $5,000, the face of the policy, was received in Grand Rapids, and on Monday, March 20, the state agents paid the $5,000 over to the widow. It is doubtful if any other insurance company or insurance agents can show a better record for promptness and dispatch in the payment of a death claim, especially when it is remembered that at least twelve of the days in terminating the two hundred and thirty dollars were consumed by the mails in transit to and from San Francisco.
